Bue

Sherry, an intellectual as well as a healer who works with clients came to us with a desire for change. Sherry was obsessed with figuring out the “why and the what” of everything – even her own journey through life.

“Why am I here? What if I’m not on the right path? Am I doing what I’m supposed to be doing? Should I be accomplishing more? I feel like I’m always bouncing from project to project, obligation to obligation – never making any real headway anywhere, and consequently, there’s never any time in my life ‘just for me’. Even when I purposely plan a down day it never happens. It doesn’t seem to matter what I’m doing, I’m never satisfied that I’m doing what I’m supposed to be doing. I’m always wondering if maybe I should be doing something else.” Sherry complained.

Everything Sherry was saying was screaming, “Have her work with Bue!”.

The tool we chose was a 10 Day Boot Camp – but because Bue is a Directing Archetype, we needed to check and see if Bue had a Primary Archetype living with him. And he did – Nemesis.

You see, a Directing Archetype (like Bue) must exert their influence on our lives via a Primary Archetype. Directors are always in the background, directing the energy of the Primary. While the Primary Archetype offers up raw energy for us to use, The Directing Archetypes influence the manner in which that raw energy is being delivered.

The Boot Camp is one of the most popular tools we use in our one-on-one work with clients. Its goal is to specifically address the themes that present themselves in the client's healed mythic map.

A healed mythic map is, in essence, what the client would like their lives, and the world around them, to look like if they were free of their perceived problems. A healed mythic map is much like a wish list.

If you could wave a wand, what would you want?

And when Sherry waved her wand, this is what her Healed Mythic Map looked like:

I want to learn what is important to me – NOW at this time in my life.

I want to know where and how I can have the most meaningful positive effect on people.

I want to know how to quantify, wholeheartedly enjoy and implement "Sherry" time.

When setting up a 10 Day Boot Camp, there are a number of Rituals that you help your client move through. The client begins by doing a Ritual that was created specifically for The Primary Archetype, (in Sherry's case, The Primary Archetype that she worked with was Nemesis). After that the client will do at least three more sets of different Rituals that each have very specific elements incorporated into them.

Of these four rituals, at least two of them always incorporate the energy of The Directing Archetype, (in Sherry's case – Bue).

Sherry's work with Nemesis and Bue was not clear sailing. She began with the unfortunate perception that Nemesis was a cheerless, rigid energetic, much like an old strict schoolteacher who would brook no nonsense. It took a few extra days of Ritual with Nemesis herself for Sherry to get beyond this stereotype.

Step Two was not much easier for Sherry, and even Step Three had its challenges.

Sherry's expectations of herself were deeply rooted in consensual reality. Somehow she had ended up with the belief that all forms of discipline needed to look the same and unfortunately she didn't feel she qualified as being particularly well disciplined.

Luckily Nemesis helped Sherry understand that she had been grossly undervaluing herself. She had become accustomed to labelling her own personal expression of discipline as inferior just because it manifested differently.

But Sherry's ultimate realization of her Healed Mythic Map didn't happen until near the end of The 10 Day Boot Camp. It wasn't until she was working with Bue on Day 8 that the knowledge that had eluded Sherry her entire life hit home like a ton of bricks.

Sometime in the middle of the Day 8 Ritual, the movement, the cadence and the lyrics all came together to offer a profound awareness.

"Move forward and just trust".

"Suddenly all feelings of "what if I'm missing something" were gone.

The judgment about needing to be disciplined in the same way that others are became absurd.

"I now know that I'm not like that, that's just not me, and MY type of discipline is perfect just the way it is.

And... maybe more profoundly, somehow I had forgotten 'The Sacredness of Everything'. Now that I feel it and remember its importance, I doubt that I will ever forget that again.

I feel so different – but I'm so tired. I think my body is saying to me, "Well it's about time! Finally. Now I can rest. No more angst and stress and go-go-go. Finally!!" Sherry sighed with relief.

In Sherry's life, Bue is directing Nemesis to deliver all her attributes (achievement and accomplishment, discipline, responsibility, stability and so on), in a manner that reflects the God energy; a manner that reflects the sacredness that Sherry spoke of.

Later, Sherry shared that during her final Ritual the answers to all three questions from her Healed Mythic Map became unbelievably obvious.

She was good to go!

A note from Sherry:

"There was always so much worry in my life, and that too is gone. I know now that I'm always in the right place at the right time doing exactly what I'm supposed to be doing – and the message for all of us on this planet is abundantly clear:

"If we live with integrity – we can't get it wrong".

"If we recognize the sacredness of life – we can't get off track, even if we try."

Thanks, Bue !!
